Toxic effects vary with the individual user. Indications of use are, among others, being unusually talkative, purposeless activity such as taking something apart and trying to put it Mayor Sam Sawyer reported the countil on his recent trip and compulsive projects which do not make sense. Why is it necessary to cover the minute details of the drugs most abused in this series? Isn't it enough to know that drug abuse causes unnecessary deaths, ruins lives and drains our national economy? Agreed, these things should be enough to know, but human nature makes it very easy to forget the lessons learned in recent years. NATIONAL CRISIS

Passing comments on the idea of Coffee County adopting a wide "Land Use Plan" indicate that there is danger in them there hills! If we are to operate under any kind of self-imposed plan, our elected officials must operate very openly and set step lightly or our very independent traditions will come to the surface. When this happens it is like a rattlesnake - he strikes whatever moves. I suggest our elected county officials adopt only enough rules to qualify low-lying property owners to get flood insurance AND a set of regulations to control the standards of subdivisions in the county. This will not tell a person he can or can't subdivide, but will set certain standards to protect the ultimate buyer.

The internal bickering of our county commission has tarnished the image of this body. I find many people agreeing with any criticism of the commission regardless of what is said. No editorial criticising a governing body should please everyone BUT not one person commenting on our recent words about the commission has disagreed with a word we said. Now even I am not always right and would like to hear the other side. . . if there is one!

We received a call Monday afternoon from a concerned citizen. There was some sewer repair work taking place on Mayor Sam Sawyer's property and a city truck was there and our caller felt it was news worthy. We agree, no city official has the right to use city employees for private gain so we checked it out immediately. But things are not always as they appear. First, the work was being done by a private individual. Second, the city truck was the pick-up Mr. J. C. Stuckey drives. He takes the truck home at night because he is on call and at this time he was on his way home and stopped by to see how the work was progressing. The city crews had earlier cleared the sewer up to Sawyer's property line and turned it over to the that places a tremendous others at that point. They had had considerable problems finding the pipes in the yard and Stuckey was personally interested in how the work was progressing. This time we give everyone a clean bill, but with the help of our readers, we will continue to watch all of our public employees.

Representative Jimmy Holley has dropped the idea of a juvenile home in Coffee County. This ain't a jail, but a place for juveniles to live when there are family problems, etc. We happened to mention this to Bo Davis (LEPA Director) Monday and he quickly started making notes. Davis feels this type facility is needed and can go a long way toward preventing future crime. I take this opportunity to say I also support the project.

The Coffee County jail is . . . not adequate. That is the mildest way I know of saying it. Some officials talk of a completely. new jail. Local folks get real upset when jail conditions are described; some say we can improve with some add-on construction; others say it isn't possible. It is going to be interesting to watch the developments on this matter also. . . maybe some politics will surface shortly!

It's Never Too Late

Can you believe we're on our last nine weeks of school? For many of us the year has sped by and for many it has crept. Usually when we enjoy it and work hard, it passes in a hurry, and when we find it difficult, it drags by. Some of us are just passing in our school work and some not even that. Many times we think, "Well, it's too late to do anything about it now, the year's almost over." But is it too late? Don't you think that if we showed a real effort and but our teachers know that we were interested and did our very best for the remainder of the year that we could probably accomplish our goal? Let's try!

Barbiturates act as a sedative and also a hypnotic. They calm the central nervous system. Conditions for legitimate medical uses are varied and include, nervous tension, hypertension (high blood pressure), insomnia, chilepsy. In addition, gical ailments. As with heroin, barbiturates create physical and also psychological dependence. The chief dangers lie in

Those which provide a slow start in their effect, but duration longer, as in the case of phenobarbital. Examples are r moderate in starting time and duration. These include utabarbital and amobarbital. Other examples could be Butisol and Amytal. (3) Short action, fast starters. The effects come on fast, but do not last as long as group 1. Examples are

Parents observing unusual behavior of youngsters, where ster's physical and mental functions. If really on barbiturates the user's speech will become slower than usual, his actions will be impaired and his judgment becomes very erratic. Finding capsules or tablets in the youngster's clothing, which you know nothing about as to origination or reason for him having them, should be met with immediate alarm, and insistence of a full explanation. explanation.
